Mr. Johnson,

As you'll see in the list we plan to file with a revised proposed order later today, we discovered we inadvertently missed a few D&Os in Mr. Hyman's case. We are currently requesting to extend the stay to Isaac Lefkowitz, Abraham Goldberger, and David Gefner, in addition to the parties I previously mentioned.

Mr. Johnson,

No, we are not currently seeking to stay Mr. Hyman's case entirely. Our motion, as it relates to Mr. Hyman, currently proposes only to extend the stay to YesCare/CHS, Scott King, and Sara Tidwell. In addition, after discussions with the US Trustee, we are going to modify our order to provide only interim relief, for 35 days, until further order of the Court. The amended order isn't ready for prime time yet, but we will file it with a notice as soon as possible. The current draft includes an exhibit specifically listing each party over whom we are seeking to extend the stay.

If you have any questions, feel free to call me at 469-320-6199.

Ms. Carson—I'm reaching out to you pursuant to LR 9013-1(g)(1). Our client is James Hyman, who has a pending lawsuit in the Middle District of Tennessee that is implicated, at least in part, by the Debtor's emergency motion in this case. We are planning to file a response today. But before we do, as required by local rules, I wanted to see if we could resolve any issues before filing our response.

Specifically, I'm assuming Tehum is seeking a stay of all claims in the attached lawsuit and is not willing to allow any of the claims to proceed? If so, what is the basis for the stay with respect to Perigrove, LLC?

Happy to discuss via phone. Thank you.
